Target just told Budweiser to hold their beer. The onesie is what sent me over the edge. This is in Frisco!

I don't even like Target in the first place. Won't bother me to stop any business I do give them.

Why no videos of the bathing suit section? Have you seen how small the bikinis are they are selling to teens?
Like Reply 2h

Dawn Belcher Neufeld But that is okay, right? I'll give credit to Brian as he does fully understand that there are people out there (in his city) who see a young girl or young man wearing a bathing suit that may be a little more revealing and see that as a more sexualized image than it was intended. But because they are not wearing pride colors, it's okay, right?

James Nunn I decorated the house for my daughter's birthday over the weekend - I'm clearly indoctrinating her with rainbows. Lol.

So you don't support a Frisco business? And you have an issue with the Frisco population that is gay? Does B1 BANK have issues with gay people?

Brian Livingston please go to every department store in Frisco then and chastise them for selling short shorts and revealing shirts. I'm glad your issue is not homosexuality.

James Nunn Brian Livingston So are you going to stand up to child beauty pageants? Or kids who are part of the cheer squad? Those kids are dressed way older and sexualized more than a onesie. So are you going to lead that effort in Frisco?
